

FAITH & REASON*

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA
School of Philosophy
2023 Fall Lecture Series

09/15 Ultimate Questions

Candace Vogler
David B. and Clara E. Stern Professor
Department of Philosophy
University of Chicago

10/20 Faith as a Novel Principle of Action in Newman

Michael Pakaluk
Ordinary Professor
Busch School of Business
The Catholic University of America

10/27 Pascal and the Prospects of Divine Disclosure

Martin Nemoianu
Associate Professor
Department of Philosophy
Loyola Marymount University

11/03 The Function of Dogma in Scientific Research

Thomas Marré
Assistant Professor
School of Philosophy
The Catholic University of America

11/10 *Common Experience: A Husserlian
Phenomenology of Testimony*

Michele Averchi
Associate Professor
School of Philosophy
The Catholic University of America

In commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the publication of Fides et ratio.*

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

All lectures to be held 2-4 PM in the Aquinas Hall Auditorium at The Catholic University of America.

For more information or for disability accommodations, please contact Maureen Boyle (boyleml@cua.edu).